

News & Events

Calendar

The Tradition of Marble

Speaker/Event

Charlie Kaplan

Sculptor

The Tradition of Marble: How it is Quarried and the Culture of the Artisans—A View from Carrara with Sculptor Charlie Kaplan

Date

Friday, January 29, 2016

Time

12:00 pm – 1:30 pm

Place

38 West 86th Street, Seminar Room

To RSVP: 212.501.3019, academicevents@bgc.bard.edu

Description

Charlie Kaplan will be giving a Brown Bag Lunch presentation on Friday, January 29, 2016, from 12 to 1:30pm, at the Bard Graduate Center in New York City. His talk is entitled “The Tradition of Marble: How it is Quarried and the Culture of the Artisans—A View from Carrara with Sculptor Charlie Kaplan.”

Coffee and tea will be served; attendees are welcome to bring their own lunch.

RSVP is required. Please click on the registration link at the bottom of this page or contact academicevents@bgc.bard.edu.

Academic Programs, Seminar Series / Brown Bag Lunch

■ Export to Calendar

■ Send to a Friend ■ Send to a Friend

■ Register